Vendor and Activity Tent Space Going Fast!

The Shenandoah County Fair promises to be even more exciting than in years past so those hoping to secure a vendor space need to act fast. "With only a few indoor and a few outdoor spaces yet available the choice is narrowing." said D.J. Bushong the fair's newest office staff member. "We've added many exciting vendors this year including an Amish Doughnut station and Fudge Frenzy both located near the just completed Sharon Lilly 4-H FFA Show Arena. Because of this and other additions we will have interesting things for people to see and try throughout the entire fairgrounds." she went on to say.

Another exciting location is the BB&T and Sherwin – Williams Activities Tent, an event tent featuring things for all ages to enjoy. The tent is populated by musicians, artists, crafters, businesses and agencies, each of which provides an interactive display or demonstration. Cindy Wilkins the tent coordinator is working to secure talent and businesses to showcase in this area.

To be considered for either vendor or activity tent space please contact the fair office at 459-3867 or shenfair@shentel.net for more information.
